ACCREDITATION: The University of Louisiana at Lafayette is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools as a degree-granting institution at the associate, baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels. In addition, various departments, colleges and schools hold individual accreditation from their professional accrediting agencies including: Southern University Conference, Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business, American Association of State Colleges and Universities, Conference of Southern Graduate Schools and the Council of Graduate Schools. See the appropriate University Bulletin for the most current and other accreditations.

An official transcript contains all essential academic data, such as dates of attendance, courses taken, grades and credit/s awarded, and degrees received. An official transcript is one that has been issued by the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and bears the university seal, date and appropriate signature of the University Registrar.

CREDITS

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette operates under the semester calendar. In addition, there is a summer session consisting of terms of varying lengths. Credits are reported in semester hours and are usually based on the number of times and minutes a course meets per week during the regular semester.

Repeated Courses: I=Final Attempt, included in Earned Hours. A=Previous Attempt(s), excluded from Earned Hours.

Cumulative Grade Point Average: Computed by averaging all grades earned for all courses taken at UL Lafayette and other institutions in which grades of A, B, C, D, and F (or the equivalent) are assigned.

Cross Enrollment: Cross Enrollment Agreements allow students at either participating institution to attend both institutions concurrently. When a student participates in a Cross Enrollment program, the course is scheduled indicating the participating institution and total hours enrolled. The course is not assigned a grade, but rather, credit is received and recorded as transfer work.

Academic Amnesty: Courses noted with an E (exclude) in the repeat column. All credits under Academic Amnesty will be included in attempted totals only. The Academic Amnesty effective date is indicated on the record.
